

10 Important Things To Know About the Ashfall Fossil Beds

#1...The Ashfall fossil skeletons are buried in a kind of rock called _____.
sandstone volcanic ash

#2...The Ashfall ash was blasted out of a supervolcano in what is now _____.
Wyoming Idaho Venezuela Minnesota

#3...Most Ashfall fossils are complete _____.
skeletons animals

#4...The whole fossil skeletons are found at Ashfall because the animals were buried quick and deep in _____.
tar dirt volcanic ash

#5...Many skeletons are found in this one spot because the animals laid down and died in a _____.
waterhole zoo jungle

#6...The birds and small animals died first and are at the _____ of the fossil bed.
edge bottom left

lions rhinos walruses

#7...The _____ are big animals and died after the three-toed horses and llama-like camels.

#8...Rhinos, camels, and three-toed horses are all kinds of animals called _____.
dinosaurs pachyderms mammals

#9...Almost all of the mammal skeletons found at Ashfall so far have been from plant-eaters. Bones that are missing from the skeletons in the fossil bed probably were moved by _____.
magicians scavengers meat-eaters carnivores

#10...A scientist who studies fossils is called a _____.
archaeologist climatologist pathologist paleontologist